3. YOUR ACCOUNT and PAYMENT OBLIGATIONS

In consideration of your use of the Service, you agree to: (a) provide true, accurate, current and complete information about yourself and/or your organization as prompted by the Service's registration form (such information being the "Registration Data") and (b) maintain and promptly update the Registration Data to keep it true, accurate, current and complete. If you provide any information that is untrue, inaccurate, not current or incomplete, or Provider has reasonable grounds to suspect that such information is untrue, inaccurate, not current or incomplete, Provider has the right to suspend or terminate your account and refuse any and all current or future use of the Service or any portion thereof.

By initialing here you consent to the periodic, automated, charging of your credit card on file with us to satisfy outstanding charges.

Initial _____

You agree to maintain your account in good standing unless you cancel. You agree to maintain a current, active credit card on account against which charges will be satisfied by Provider on a regular basis depending upon your account set up and preferences. You further agree to pay any outstanding account charges promptly, and in any event, no less than the last day of the invoice month. Failure to pay any invoice timely gives us the right to, at our discretion, either terminate your service, or charge any credit card we hold on your account for the full balance of any indebtedness to us. In addition, any discounts granted will be revoked and payment on the full non-discounted value of services or products sold under an invoice not paid within 30 days will then be due.

Depending on your account settings, charges are billed at the time of use, or in arrears by invoice. Billing cycle end dates may change from time to time. When a billing cycle covers less than or more than a full month, Provider may make reasonable adjustments and pro-rations. If Client has authorized payment by credit card, no additional notice or consent will be required for billings to that credit card or account. Client will advise Provider of any changes to Client's credit card account, such as account number or expiration date changes. Time is of the essence for payment; therefore, Client agrees to pay Provider interest at (a) 18% per annum (after late fees and/or collection costs) or (b) the highest amount allowed by law for any amounts unpaid as of the due date, whichever is less. Provider reserves the right to charge a $15.00 per month late payment fee to account for administrative expenses in collection. Acceptance of late or partial payments (even if marked "Paid in Full") shall not waive any of Provider's rights to collect the full amount due under this Agreement. Provider may assess an additional administrative fee of fifty dollars ($50) for any check returned for nonpayment or any credit card payment that is declined. Notice of any disputes must be in writing and received by Provider at Provider's address within thirty days after the invoice date or Client is deemed to have waived any objection.

notice to Client, if Provider suspects fraudulent or abusive activity. Client agrees to cooperate with Provider in any fraud investigation and to use any fraud prevention measures Provider prescribes. Client should change their password once each month or more frequently if desired. Upon termination of the Service, Client's right to use the Service immediately ceases and Client shall have no right to any content or data stored, read or unread, or unsent messages and Provider will have no obligation thereafter to forward any unread or unsent messages or other content to Client or any third party.
