

Service Comp Laude Award

Ascential Care Partners, LLC

In less than four years, Ascential Care Partners, LLC, winner of the 2015 Service Comp Laude Award, has grown from two people in one state to a national presence, including a distinguished executive team, leading-edge employees and a network comprising more than 1,000 case managers throughout the country. Noted for being a team of “bright, innovative and courageous people” by a nominator, Ascential Care Partners provides insightful, caring, high-quality service to its patients, their families and the community. Cutting-edge technology and patient-centered programs allow Ascential Care Partners’ team members to improve patients’ lives and advocate for the best care possible.

Operated by CEO Cindy Whitehouse and Executive Team Members, Ascential Care Partners aims to go above and beyond the call to ensure patients receive the best quality of life as they return to their highest function. Caring for patients using the latest technology and case management innovations has been their goal from day one. Thus, their mission statement: “Empowering those we serve to achieve their highest quality of life.”

Ascential Care also focuses on philanthropy and community organizations, encouraging employee involvement and as a company, with the goal of improving lives on many levels. Collaboration with industry leaders and advocating at all levels of government regarding regulations and rights affecting injured workers are part of Ascential Care Partners’ commitment to lead the charge to a new and better industry standard while creating unique and individualized managed care services.

“Ascential Care Partners is humbled and truly honored to receive the Service Comp Laude Award. Winning this award was a team effort that would not have been possible without the incredible administrative staff, executive team, supervisors and case managers who daily display extreme kindness and fierce nurturing to our patients and customers. Their relationships, knowledge and skills are essential in helping ensure patients are able to return to work faster and live healthy and abled lives,” says Whitehouse. “This is not only an award for the organization, but a thank you to each employee for the hard work put forth on a daily basis for the betterment of patients’ lives. As the owner of Ascential Care, I want to thank everyone who has contributed to our success, including our patients, employees, customers, network members, consultants and the many leaders in our industry who’ve provided advice, praise and criticism. In winning this award, we are reminded of the words of Isaac Newton: ‘If I have seen further, it is by standing on the shoulders of giants.’”
