

Winner of the 2016 Comp Laude™ Award for Claims Professional is Christina Hurtado of San Bernardino County.

Christina Hurtado was given the exclusive management of injuries of San Bernardino County employees following the San Bernardino terrorist attack on Dec 2, 2015. There were 13 employee deaths, 21 or more hospitalized with injuries and scores of other people who needed psychiatric or other care. According to one of her nominators, "...she has managed it all with dignity, providing individualized care and following the county's best practices."

Professional Bio:

Cal State Northridge BA-Political Science

Republic Indemnity - Property Underwriter (2 years)

State Compensation Fund – Workers' Compensation Claims Adjuster (3 years)

GAB Robins North America - Workers' Compensation Claims Adjuster (11 years)

County of San Bernardino - Workers' Compensation Claims Adjuster (15 years)

IEA-WCCA, WCCP

Self-Insurance Certification

On receiving her award, Christina Hurtado says, "I appreciate the recognition."